

Recollections of Paly and Palo Alto as We Knew it - Share Your Thoughts!

Class of 1963
50 year Reunion
Can you believe it?

B/W photos compliments of Palo Alto Historical Association
<http://www.pahistory.org/>

Our Roots - Paly 1888 & 1918

First Paly high school, 1888

New Paly high in 1918

Paly 1960s & Driver Ed

Has the Front of
Paly Changed
Much?

We Learned to Drive Here

Buying a Ticket to the Prom and Where we Graduated

The amphitheater is gone but the memories persist

Life at Paly was Good

We had good Governance

L. Johnson, D. Johnson, E. Kirk, J. Alexander, P. Rheinhardt.

And we had good hangouts – Fosters Freeze

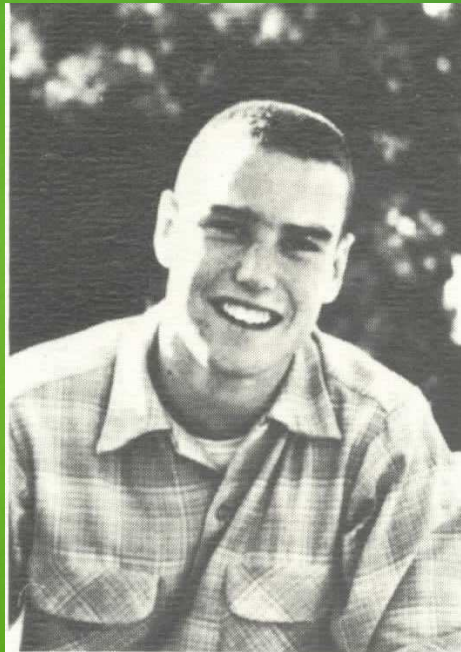

We had Good Sports Teams

Quarterback Larry Lomax

Lomax at QB

MOST ATHLETIC
Dick Beahrs

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Dick Beahrs, what sport did he play?

An Active Social Life at Paly - 1963

The Jinx Buttons and Bows

Buttons and BowsII

What was the monster mash and who were these people?

Paly Today & Future

Yellow Buildings are to be Renovated, Orange Buildings are Planned Additions

Today

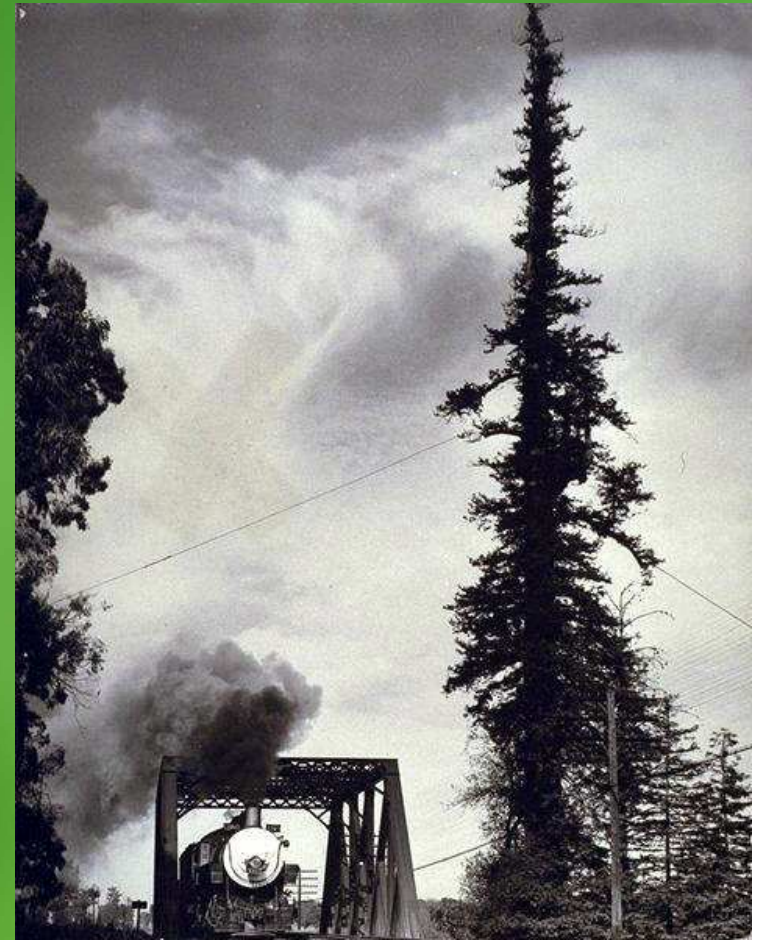

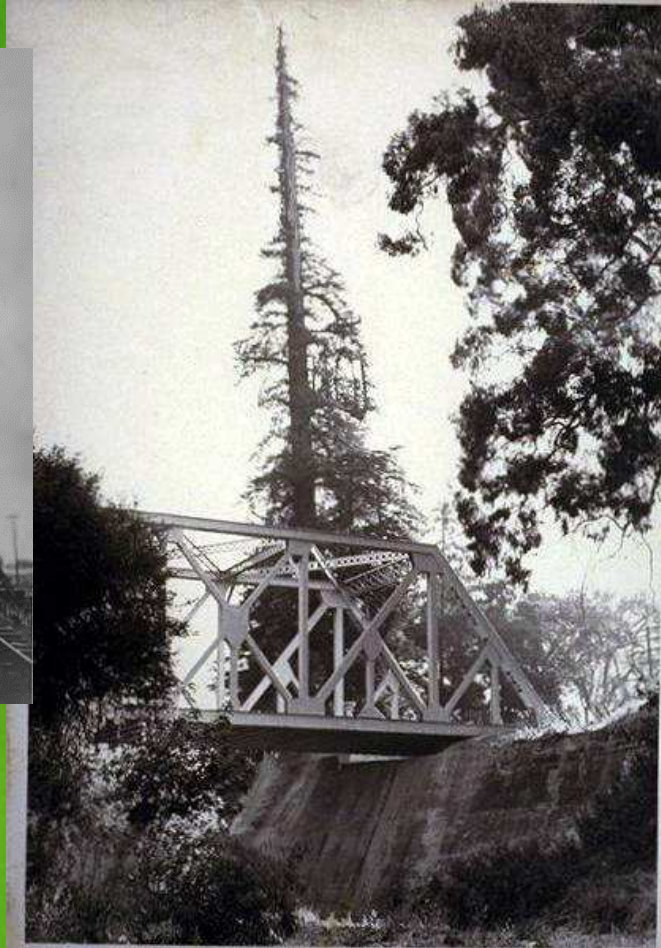

Planned

The Palo Alto Tree, is being Preserved

There used to be two trees

Known as “El Palo Alto”

Our Elementary Schools Included

Addison School

Walter Hayes School

1951 – A Good Year to be in Kindergarten at Walter Hayes

Were the Oldest in the AM or PM Class and Why?

Nine Paly 1963
Graduates in Each Class of ~25 Students

Lytton School has a Long History

Third Grade, 1954

Garland School & Junior Museum

Jean Aplin and Diane Morrin
Promote the Litterbug
Contest 1955

The Junior Museum, they had many discoveries in there

We Had Choices Growing Up, or Did We?

Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts were Popular

What were the troop numbers?

You either went to Boudoins
(below) or Boones

What dances did they teach us?

We Spent Time in Libraries, or Should Have

Main Library on Newell Ave.

College Terrace Library

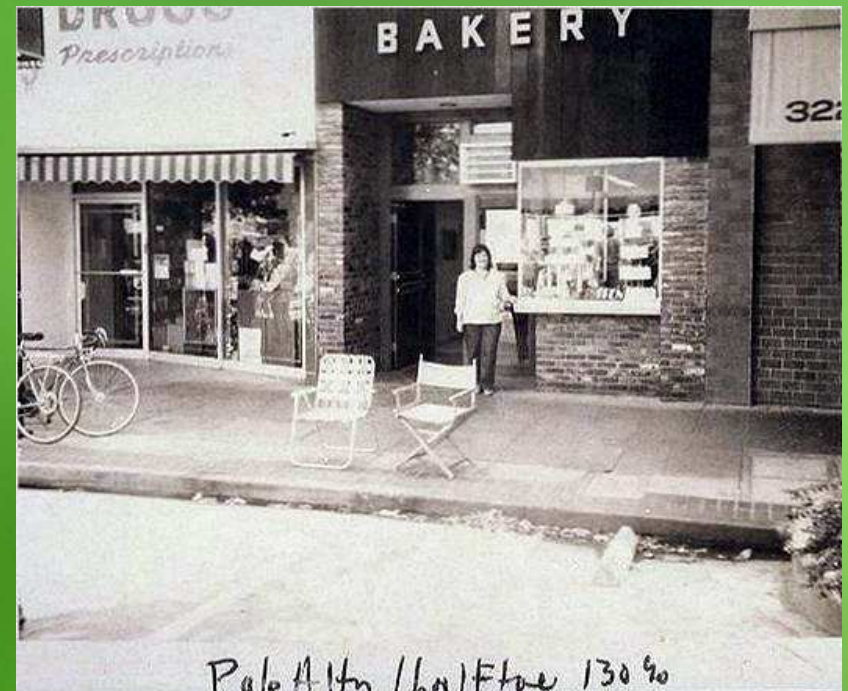

Important Places Downtown

Peninsula Creamery, when we Needed a Treat

Crescent Bakery, when we needed a Donut or a Cruller

University Avenue: “Downtown”

Congdon & Chrome for School Supplies

Art Gleim senior, dad of our classmate where we went for nice jewelry

Two Theatres to Choose From

Varsity Theatre

Stanford Theatre

Which one did you spend the most time at?

The Train Was a Big Part of Every Day Life in Early Palo Alto

Station at University Ave.
was the Main Station

California Ave Station was added later

How Many of us Could Hear the Train from Our Homes?

The Train Connected us to San Francisco

Some of our Parents
Commuted to the City

The Underpass on University Ave. Changed
Downtown in the 1940s

Yes, it Snows in Palo Alto (1962)

City Hall in the Snow, 1962

Did the Fire Stations sell us Candy?

The Lawn Bowls Club on Embarcadero and Churchill is Still There

Paul Houseman (center)
Built their Club House

And he was an Award Wining
Bowler and Father of Linda
Houseman Maddaus

Any current member(s) out there?

Palo Alto Parades Were Great

The May Day Parade was a
Yearly Highlight

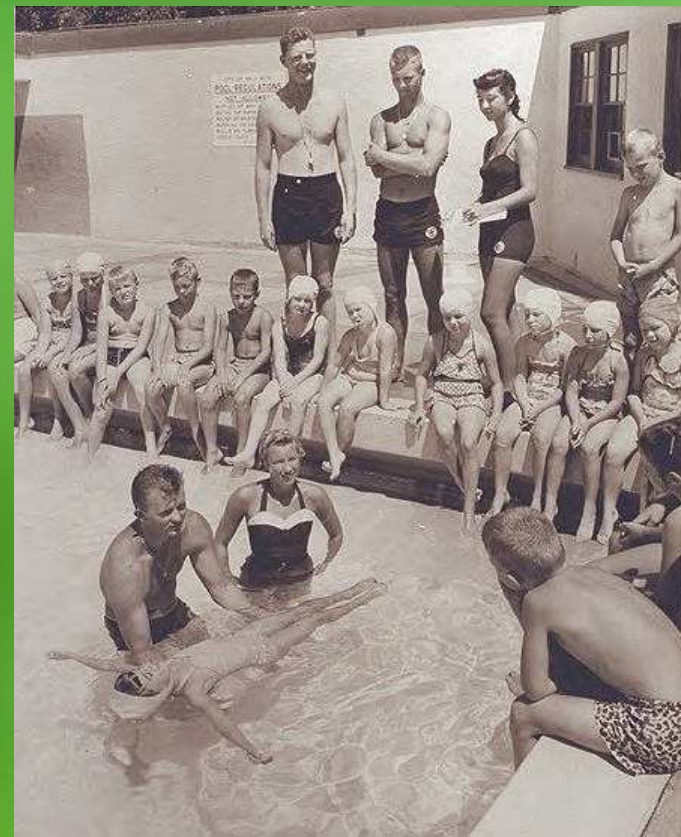

We Were Participators!

Rinconada Pool Opened after the May Day Parade

Was there a high dive that was pretty scary?

Who learned to swim there?

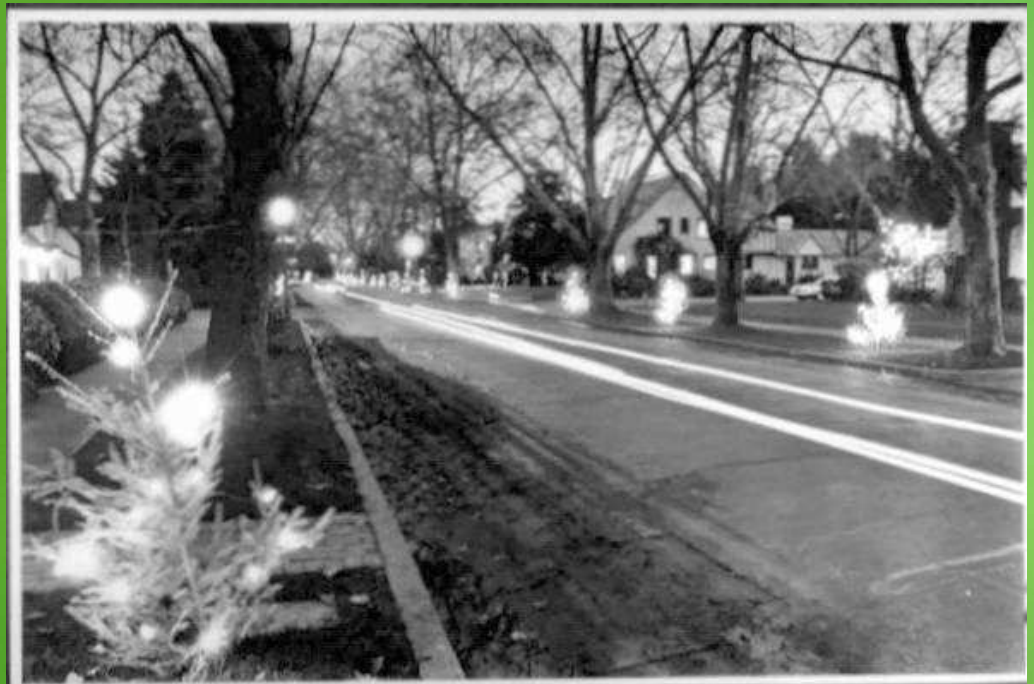

Christmas Tree Lane in Palo Alto, Still a Tradition

Our Piggy Banks Often Got Deposited Here

Fulton Street is a Must See When Visiting in December

Stanford and Paly have Always been Close

Paly has always been right across the street

Were any of you a Junior Rooter?

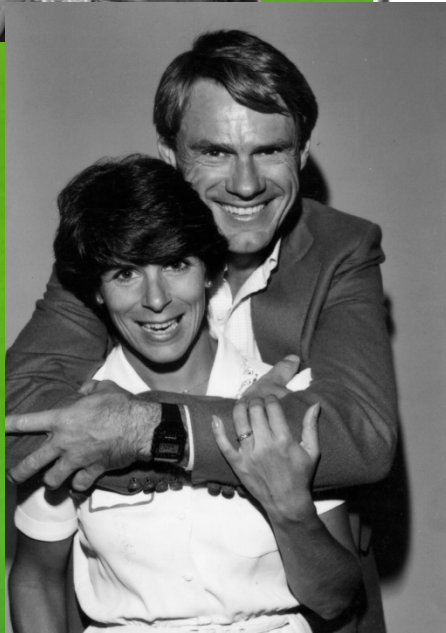

Stanford and Cal have had a long history of the “Big Game”

The Paly-Sequoia Football Game was Held Here Right After Thanksgiving

Reunions Keep Us Connected!

Our 20th - 1983

Our 30th - 1993

↖
The Garland Gang

Our 40th - 2003

Our 50th – What a Great Turnout!

Friday Night Event Photos

Our 50th – Saturday Picnic and Tour

